AGM Statement and Board Change

Micro Focus International plc ('Micro Focus, LSE: MCRO.L) holds its AGM at 1.00pm today. The following statement will be made by Chairman, Kevin Loosemore:

'We are pleased to announce that we are making positive progress in the financial year to date. We now anticipate that we will achieve modest revenue growth in the first half and have executed successfully on our cost reduction plans. We look forward to providing a further update at the interims in December.'

'Micro Focus also announces today that Non-executive Director, John Browett, steps down from the Board due to the potential for a conflict arising from his other responsibilities. The Board thanks John for his valuable contribution to the business and wishes him every continued success. It is intended to appoint a replacement for John as soon as practically possible.'
